

Snapshot/ Impression of the Hong Kong Wetland Park

There are a few Black-faced Spoonbills in Wetland Park. The Spoonbills were joyful. As you see, some of the Spoonbills were talking or drinking in the water. Sometimes they felt lonely if no Spoonbills played with them. Spoonbills have special appearance, such as slim legs and flappy mouth. They enjoyed their lives a lot. When you got too close to them, they would go away.