

22nd February

My cousin came to Hong Kong for five days. He has never been to Hong Kong before, so I took him for a one-day trip. It was an exciting day.

In the morning, we had breakfast at home. Then we went to Lam Tsuen Wishing Tree. We made a wish to wish we will have a good year. Next, we visited Lam Tsuen Wishing Tree and Tin Hau Temple. In there, the air was very fresh, it was relaxing for us.

In the afternoon, we went to Wong Tai Sin Temple. We prayed for good luck, but the incense sticks there were very smelly. Then, we had vegetarian food for lunch, but I dislike vegetarian food, so I think I won't come here again.

At 2:00 p.m., we went to Ladies' Market. Tom said, 'What an interesting Street name!'. We bought many cheap things. And in there, we can bargain. But it was very noisy and crowded. After that, we felt hungry, so we ate some street food, Tom said they were very delicious because he has never tried Hong Kong's street food.

At night, we had Chinese food at Chinese Restaurant, Tom had dumplings and I had noodle soup. The food there was yummy.

Finally, we went to the Avenue of stars, we saw A symphony of Lights at 8:00 p.m. We both thought the performance was spectacular. And we saw the handprints of famous celebrities. Tom's favourite celebrity handprints was there too, so he was very excited.

Today was a nice day, Tom was very happy and he wished to come to Hong Kong again.
