Three Days in Hong Kong

Dear Mark,

How are you doing? How's your family? Thanks for your letter, In the last letter, you said you will arrive Hong Kong at seven in the morning on 24th July and leave at 11p.m. on 26th July. I am really glad after hearing this news.

On 24th July, I will suggest you take the ship to Lamma Island. On Lamma Island, you can try the genuine seafood of Hong Kong with your family. After having a meal, you can go hiking and enjoy the beautiful scene of the nature on the way in order to relax.

On 25th July, I will suggest you go to the Disneyland. Though Hong Kong Disneyland area is comparatively small, there are different theme areas. You can experience many kinds of happy atmosphere around you. In addition, there are a lot of motorized games, like the space mountain flies, it is very exciting. And then, you can find the cartoon characters and take photos with them. At night, you must see the fireworks show with you family.

On 26th July, I will suggest you go to Mongkok, Tsim Sha Tsui and Causeway Bay for shopping. There are different kinds of shops. In this way, you can buy some souvenirs for your friends in America.

I hope the above information can help you and I wish you have a happy summer holiday!

Love,
Jan
