

Ending Rewriting- Cinderella

When Cinderella knew that the time is 12 p.m. now, she left immediately and left a vitreous shoe behind. The prince found it and called the ministers to check which girl can put on this shoe. He also helped them for checking.

When he was checking who that beautiful girl is, he suddenly found a pretty girl. He gave her the same shoe and found that she can put it on. The prince asked, 'Are you Cinderella?' The girl looked sad and said, 'No, I'm Cindy, a former princess in a palace.' He saw that she was unhappy and asked, 'Former? What happened before?' In fact, she would marry the prince called Ken. But because of hatred, her father refused. Ken felt really angry and left alone, and she couldn't marry him finally. 'Poor Princess.' He said. 'Now, nobody loves me truly.' Cindy said. The prince understood and he thought she was more beautiful than Cinderella, so he said, 'At the first time I saw you, I just thought there is an angel in my eyes. Will you marry me?' The princess was moved and they fell in love and got married.

In addition, Cinderella went to a forest in order to hide herself. And the magic was cleared. When she tried to take a rest, she saw a man who was hitting the tree. She found that he wasn't the prince she saw before, but she still went there and asked what happened. The prince was called Ken. Although Cinderella became a normal woman with clothes, Ken still fell in love with her. They loved each other and got married.

The witch saw that they were very happy, so she didn't do anything to disturb them, and she disappeared herself.
