

Dear Editor,

I am writing to express my opinion on the issue of adopting the abandoned animals. I believe it is a good idea to adopt animals instead of buying the animals from pet shops.

To begin with, I would like to talk about the reasons why we adopt the animals. It is because the stray or injured dogs need love and care. If you cannot accept the dogs, you shouldn't waste money, because you buy the dogs home, but you are not concerned of them, you should simply not to buy them.

Besides, there are a lot of advantages of adopting the animals from the SPCA. For example, they can care your life to make you happy and you can save money, because the animals are very expensive, so if you want to raise a pet, you can adopt the animals from the SPCA.

However, you should think twice before you adopt animals. It is because you should spend more time and money, you may feel regret after a short period of time.

To conclude, I think we should adopt animals because we can give a warm home to them.

Yours faithfully,
